

Mission & Scope of the Industry Council

---

- The Industry Council on ESD Target Levels is an independent body of ESD experts with the mission to review the ESD robustness requirements of modern IC products for allowing safe handling and mounting in an ESD protected area.
- The current scope is the immediate recommendation of Human Body Model (HBM) and Machine Model (MM) qualification targets by taking into account both IC design and manufacturing constraints as known today without affecting product reliability.